

PT NUSANTARA TECH SOLUTIONS

THE ENTERPRISE HR ENCYCLOPEDIA & COMPANY HANDBOOK (RAG CORE ASSET)

MODULE A: COMPANY HISTORY, VISION, & MISSION (A–Z)

1. Corporate History

Founded on January 1, 2024, PT Nusantara Tech Solutions emerged as a response to the rapidly accelerating demand for localized, secure, and cutting-edge software infrastructure in Southeast Asia [cite: 1]. Headquartered in Indonesia, the company started as a specialized systems integrator and rapidly scaled into a premier enterprise tech partner. By architectural design, the company prioritizes absolute data integrity, localized intelligence systems, and robust infrastructure development across all its operational sectors.

2. Vision Statement

To become the definitive cornerstone of digital transformation across the region, empowering enterprises with secure, sustainable, and highly intelligent technological ecosystems.

3. Mission Statements

- Secure Innovation: To engineer state-of-the-art software solutions while maintaining uncompromising adherence to data privacy laws and data minimization principles [cite: 2].
- Operational Excellence: To cultivate an elite workforce driven by strict professional standards, punctuality, and a culture of continuous optimization [cite: 1].
- Enterprise Empowerment: To equip organizations with scalable tools that automate operational overhead and maximize human strategic potential [cite: 2].

MODULE B: COMPREHENSIVE WORKPLACE REGULATIONS & CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Working Hours, Shifts, and Attendance

- Standard Operational Hours: The company operates on a standard five-day workweek, from Monday to Friday [cite: 1].
- Daily Schedule: The official workday commences strictly at 08:00 AM and concludes at 05:00 PM [cite: 1].
- Mandatory Breaks: A designated lunch and rest break is provided daily from 12:00 PM to 01:00 PM [cite: 1].
- Time Tracking: All employees are required to log their daily attendance (clocking in and clocking out) utilizing the official company-designated HRIS/attendance logging system [cite: 1].

2. Punctuality, Grace Periods, and Tardiness

- Definition of On-Time Arrival: Employees are expected to be at their designated workspaces and clocked in by 08:00 AM [cite: 1].
- The 15-Minute Rule (Tardiness Threshold): Any arrival or clock-in action executed beyond 15 minutes past the official start time (08:15 AM onward) without formal, prior supervisor approval is classified as an unexcused lateness or tardy incident [cite: 1].
- Disciplinary Context: Repeated tardy incidents without valid extenuating circumstances are subject to progressive disciplinary tracking by the HR Division [cite: 1].

3. Overtime Policy and Calculations

- Pre-Approval Requirement: Overtime work is non-arbitrary. Any overtime hours must be explicitly requested, justified, and approved by the direct supervisor in writing before the work is performed [cite: 1].
- Weekday Overtime Rate: Approved overtime hours worked on standard business days (Monday through Friday) are calculated at 1.5x the standard hourly wage rate [cite: 1].
- Weekend Overtime Rate: Approved overtime hours worked on weekends (Saturday and Sunday) are calculated at 2.0x the standard hourly wage rate [cite: 1].

4. Leave Management and Time-Off

- Annual Leave Allocation: Full-time employees are allocated a standard total of 12 days of paid annual leave per calendar year [cite: 1].
- Medical / Sick Leave Protocol: Employees unable to work due to illness must notify HR. If the sick leave spans or exceeds 2 consecutive working days, the employee is legally obligated to submit an official, verifiable doctor's note upon return to work [cite: 1].

5. Corporate Code of Conduct & Professionalism

- Dress Code: Employees must project professional credibility by adhering to a business casual attire standard during working hours and official company events [cite: 1].
- Resource Utilization: Company equipment, networks, and computing resources are strictly reserved for corporate operations. The utilization of company assets for personal commercial enterprises is strictly prohibited [cite: 1].
- Zero-Tolerance Anti-Harassment Policy: PT Nusantara Tech Solutions maintains an absolute zero-tolerance policy for harassment, bullying, or discrimination of any form based on race, gender, religion, or background. Violations result in immediate, severe disciplinary action, up to termination [cite: 1].

6. Separation, Resignation, and Confidentiality

- Resignation Notice Period: Employees intending to separate from the company via voluntary resignation must provide a formal, written notice at least 30 days prior to their intended last working day [cite: 1].

- Final Clearance Processing: Final payroll calculations, accrued benefits, and severance distributions will be fully processed and settled within 14 working days following the employee's official last day, subject to successful asset clearance [cite: 1].
- Information Security & Non-Disclosure: Employees are under a binding lifelong obligation to maintain absolute confidentiality regarding corporate data, source codes, system architectures, and client data [cite: 1, 2]. Any unauthorized data breach or leak will result in immediate termination and potential legal prosecution under national data protection frameworks [cite: 1, 2].

MODULE C: THE INTERNAL HR DICTIONARY (A–Z TERMINOLOGY)

Annual Leave: The allocated 12 days of paid time off granted to an employee per annum for personal rest, rejuvenation, or emergency balance [cite: 1].

Business Casual: The corporate standard of dress blending traditional business attire with more comfortable, contemporary professional clothing [cite: 1].

Clock In / Clock Out: The mandatory action of recording exact arrival and departure timestamps within the company's secure tracking system [cite: 1].

Data Masking: An internal security pipeline wherein sensitive employee personal identifiable information (PII) is obfuscated or tokenized to comply with strict national data protection mandates [cite: 2].

Doctor's Note Requirement: The formal medical certification mandatory for validating sick leave that extends beyond a 2-day consecutive period [cite: 1].

Final Clearance: The mandatory 14-working-day administrative cycle post-separation to compute final payouts and verify hardware returns [cite: 1].

Overtime Multiplier: The progressive wage scaling factor applied to authorized hours worked outside standard shifts, valued at 1.5x on weekdays and 2.0x on weekends [cite: 1].

Tardiness: An unexcused delay in daily shift commencement exceeding the company's standard 15-minute grace window [cite: 1].

Zero-Tolerance Violation: An immediate disciplinary trigger caused by severe breaches of conduct that moves straight toward contractual termination evaluations [cite: 1].
